

Appendix: Individual Signatory Commitments

LAB University of Applied Sciences

We, the undersigned, hereby commit to help make the City of Lahti climate neutral by 2030. We agree on the joint ambition and commitments, as formulated in the City of Lahti's European Climate City Contract.

LAB University of Applied Sciences operates in Lahti and Lappeenranta, and also provides education online. The strengths of this higher education institution specialising in innovation include the circular economy, design, innovations and health.

We improve business and industry by educating experts who promote sustainability and by producing solutions that are necessary for society. Carbon neutrality in 2025 is our strategic choice and our climate action plan guides us towards the target.
